game! The city Parks and Rec crews will keep them watered, fertilized, and cared for throughout the summer. If we can count on you to be a sponsor, please call or email me ASAP mala@downtownidahofalls.com (208) 535-0399

It is from the individual parts, worked together by a skillful hand, that create a harmonious whole. In many ways, this is like the ideal in a community. It takes many ideas, opinions, skills, and personalities to create a complete picture. It is this process of working together that produces something wonderful and unique, the end result being a beautiful work of art or a person changed as a result of others' actions. <https://museumofidaho.org/event/it-takes-a-village-opening/>
